HOUSE HAPPENINGS

December 2023

Danielle House

*You welcomed me to your home
A stranger at your door
In a very short time I knew
I was a stranger no more*

*While I was far away from home
By the wayside you showed a way
While my loved one began to recover
A quiet place to think and pray*

*A friendly voice, a helpful hand
This fledgling found a nest
An amiable chat at the end of the day
With kindness I was blessed*

*And now I must say farewell
Knowing caring angels you will send
To watch over us and lead us
To our journey's end*

*Love,
Avanell Mock*

A Message from the Executive Director

This beautiful poem written by Avanell Mock, a former guest, is a thank you note not only to our staff but to each and everyone of you, our supporters. For without your generous support Danielle House could not be. As we enter into this "Holy-day" season, please know that every guest that comes through the doors of Danielle House share many differences (ethnicity, race, education, political views, etc.). However, they are bound by one commonality, love. Obviously, they have love for their family member who is in medical crisis, yet they learn to have love for each other as they all share the same fears and concerns.

With the world in crisis, it seems somehow the answer is so simple - it is love and acceptance of each other. We may be different in many ways, but we are the same, we are bound by love.

The Stento family and staff here at the Danielle House wish you and yours health and happiness as we enter into 2024. May you be blessed as you have blessed others.

Diane

Congratulations!

Fond Remembrance Gentle Farewell

Gary Gray

One of the amazing things that happens at Danielle House, beyond offering respite to the families/individuals who may be going through difficult times, it is a place of care, hope, strength and friendships.

Our dear guest, Gary Gray was much more than our weekly guest from Norwich, he was family to us here at Danielle House. We always looked forward to seeing Gary twice a week for the many visits to care for his wife, Vicki, in the nursing home. Gary truly lived out his wedding vow's promise of love "In sickness and in health till death do us part". Their love story will beautifully live on now in heaven after God called them both home this past month. We learned at the memorial service that Gary's motto was "If there is a job to do it is worth doing it right." Well done Gary Gray, Gods good and faithful servant. Rest in peace.

Kudos and Connections

Lowell Taylor and Family for supplying Danielle House with bottled water for too many years to count!

Cortese Restaurant for providing pizzas for our weekly pizza party with our guests.

On November 6, 2023, representatives from NYS Women INC presented Danielle House with a check for $1,000. We are extremely grateful for the generous donation.
